

Tim Atkin

Wine of the week

2009 Henry Fessy Brouilly

The 2009 reds from the Beaujolais region are amazing: some of the juiciest reds I've ever tasted from this under-valued corner of rural France. This one comes from one of the top villages, or "crus", in the northern part of the appellation and it's a stunner. Vibrant and unoaked with notes of raspberry and plum and a refreshing, tangy finish.

89 points

