

Wine Spectator

www.winespector.com

By Alison Napjus

88 Henry Fessy Côte de Brouilly 2010

Well-knit and subtle, this fresh red offers brambly black and red fruit, with plum and mineral notes. Light tannins show on the finish. Drink now through 2017.

88 Henry Fessy Fleurie 2010

Fresh and tangy, with pure flavors of cherry, white raspberry and ripe plum. Balanced, offering a clean, spice-tinged finish. Drink now through 2015.

88 Henry Fessy Régnié Château des Reysiers 2010

Fresh and tangy, delivering black currant, dried cranberry and wild strawberry fruit mixed with hints of pencil shavings and spice. Well-balanced, ending with a lightly chewy finish. Drink now through 2017.

88 Henry Fessy Moulin-à-Vent 2010

Light-bodied and fresh, with raspberry, red currant, licorice, dried thyme and spice notes, showing just a hint of hoisin sauce and ending with a clean finish. Drink now through 2018.