Henry Fessy Château des Labourons "Fleurie" 2016

"Some wood aging has given this single-estate wine its smooth, polished character. Along with having the concentration of old vines, this wine is rich, generous and likely to age well."

Henry Fessy Juliéna 2016

"This wine comes from a five-acre parcel planted on schist. The 50-year-old vines have produced a solid wine, perfumed with red cherries and flavored with rich berry and black-cherry fruit. The tannins are integrating well to give a wine that will be ready from late 2018."

Henry Fessy Chénas 2016

"Chénas, the small appellation next to Moulin-à-Vent, shares something of the same structure. Coming from steep hillside slopes, this wine has a mineral character as well as solid tannins. Its black fruits are still developing, so drink this wine from mid-2018."

Henry Fessy Chiroubles 2016

"From 50-year-old vines, this wine is ripe and solid with dark black fruit as well as some firm tannins. It has weight, concentration and a strong minerality from the granite soil of this high-altitude vineyard. Drink from late 2018."
